

Cambodia Orphan Save Organization

How to make a Donation

We are thrilled to advise that Global Development Group is now accepting tax-deductible donations from donors in Australia and America for the Cambodia Orphan Save Organization. The project has been approved for land purchase and the building of a children's village near Siem Reap, Cambodia.

The application for the project was successfully lodged by Natalie McKenzie in Queensland, Australia and she is the recognized contact person for Global Development Group on matters relating to the Cambodia Orphan Save Organization project.

Global Development Group is an AustralianAID –approved NGO (non-government organization) that provides a governance role to ensure that approved projects are carried out to Australian Government requirements. The Cambodia Orphan Save Organization will be required to give six monthly reports to Global Development Group including financials, photographs, use of funds and current achievements.

There are several ways in which you can make a tax deductible donation to Cambodia Orphan Save Organization through Global Development Group and these are set out below. The most important thing to remember is, when making a donation, please ensure that you quote the project reference number J413. Please also ensure you provide your name, address and amount (for tax receipt purposes). The reference number is essential for ensuring that funds are donated to this project specifically. Donations will be forwarded to the Cambodia Orphan Save Organization by Global development Group.

Options for donating via Global Development Group:

1. By credit card online at:<https://www.aus-e.net/globaldevelopment/donations.php>
2. By check or credit card through the mail. Please make check to Global Development Group and write J413 on the check. Mail to:
